

STEP UP! BYSTANDER INTERVENTION
FACILITATOR TRAINING PROGRAM

Practicing Step UP! Scenario Facilitation

Holly Deering, University of Virginia

Jen Jacobsen, Grinnell College

The Temptation is There...

Ways to Facilitate Scenarios

- Large group discussions
- Small group discussions
- Partner up
- Role play
- Other

Time to Practice at your Table

- Select the following:
 - Scenario 1 or 2
 - Facilitation strategy
 - Group discussion
 - Pair up
 - Role play
 - Other
 - 2 Facilitators
 - The rest of the group will act as students

Round 1

- What issues are ambiguous in this scenario?
- Using the 5 Ds, what are some ways you could help?
 - Direct
 - Distract
 - Delegate
 - Delay
 - Document

Debrief Round1

- How did you facilitate the discussion: what strategies did you have your students use to work through an intervention?
- What ideas did your students come up with to intervene, both direct and indirect?

Round 2

- Select the following:
 - Scenario 3 or 4
 - Facilitation strategy
 - Group discussion
 - Pair up
 - Role play
 - Other
 - 2 Facilitators
 - The rest of the group will act as students

Round 2

- What issues are ambiguous in this scenario?
- Using the 5 Ds, what are some ways you could help?
 - Direct
 - Distract
 - Delegate
 - Delay
 - Document

Debrief Round 2

- How did you facilitate the discussion: what strategies did you have your students use to work through an intervention?
- What ideas did your students come up with to intervene, both direct and indirect?

Questions

THANK YOU

